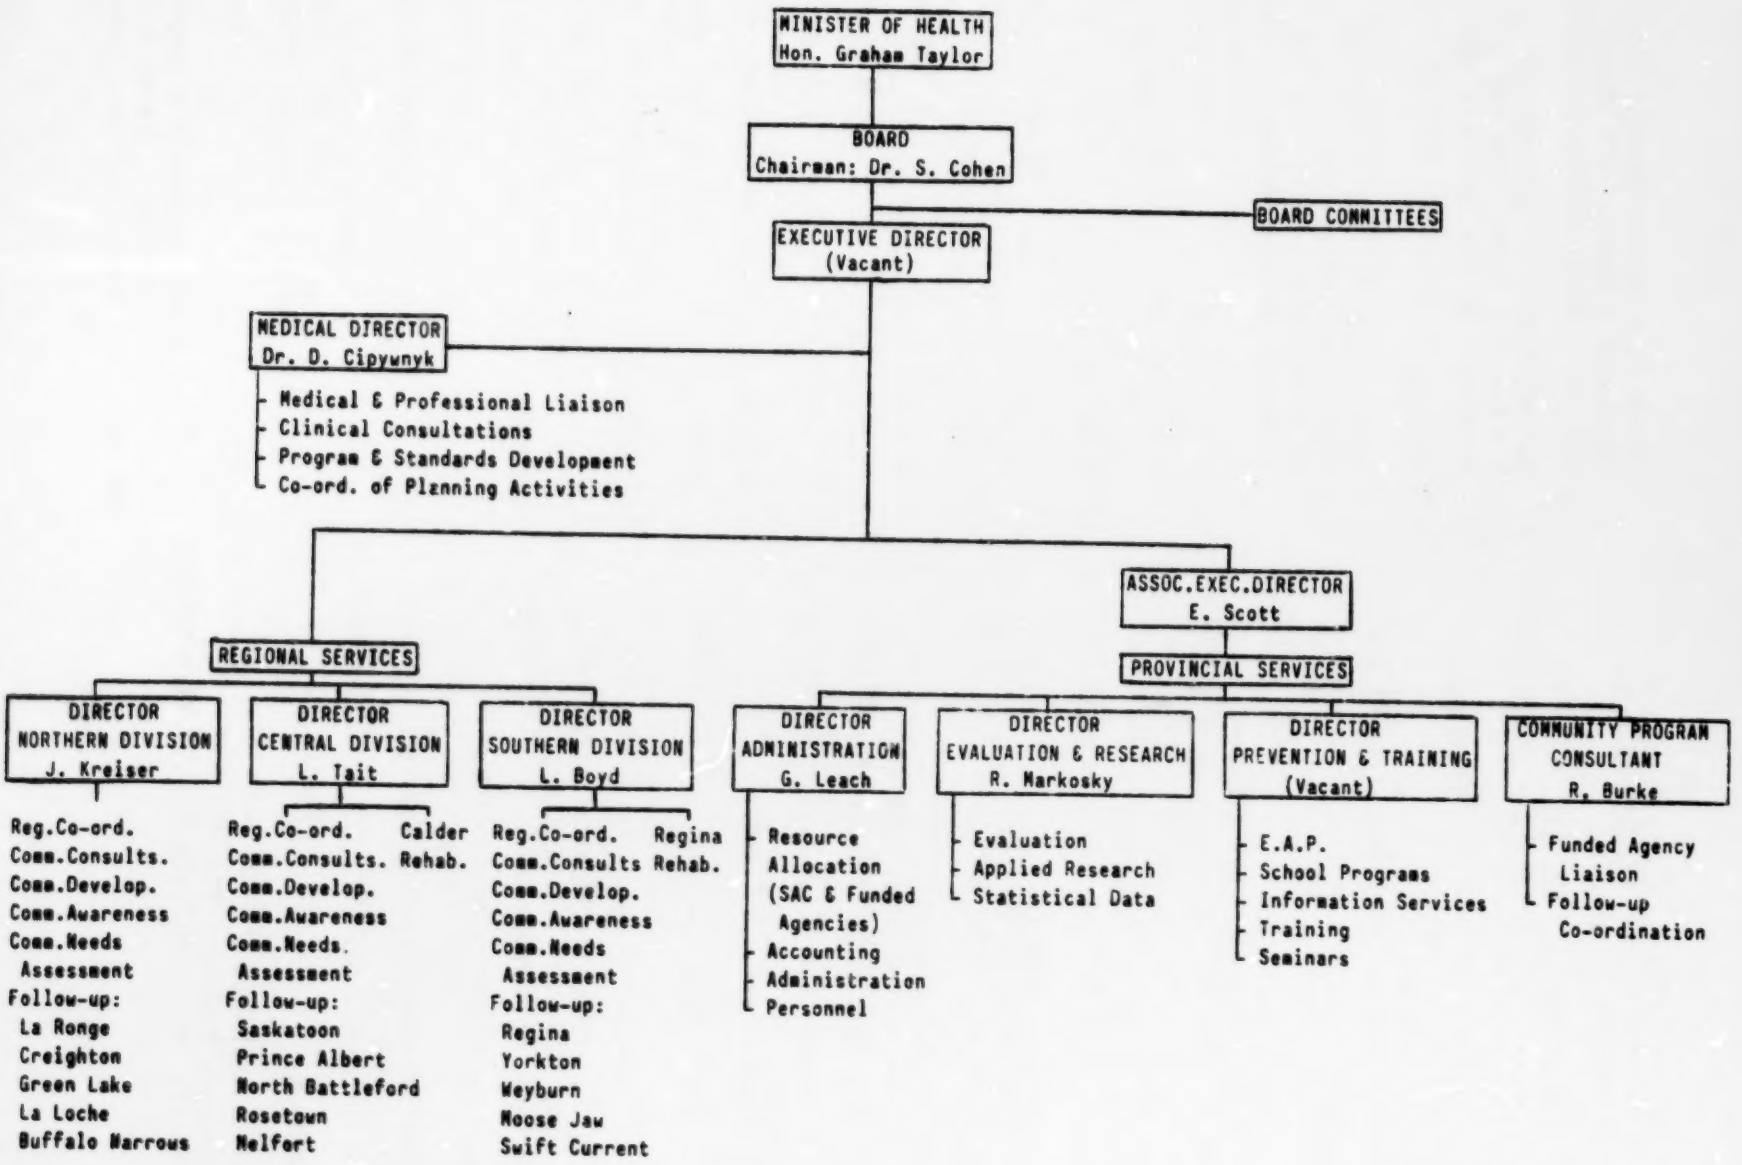
Saskatchewan Alcoholism Commission Organizational Chart



Authority

The Saskatchewan Alcoholism Commission operates under the authority of the Alcoholism Commission of Saskatchewan Act, (R.S.S. 1978). The Act provides for at least eight and not more than 12 Commission members appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council. The Chairman and three members of the Board hold office at the pleasure of the Lieutenant Governor in Council. The remaining members are appointed for three-year terms and may not hold office for more than two consecutive terms. All members must be residents of Saskatchewan.

Purpose

By virtue of its origin in an Act of the Saskatchewan Legislature, the Saskatchewan Alcoholism Commission is created to address matters of addiction to alcohol and other drugs and is charged with giving leadership in research, prevention, education and treatment in the addictions field. The purpose of the Commission, therefore, is to counteract the incidence and prevalence of alcohol and other drug abuse in Saskatchewan.

Staff and Services

Executive Director - Vacant

Medical Director - Dr. Dmytro Cipywnyk (Saskatoon)

PROVINCIAL SERVICES

Associate Executive Director - Elaine M. Scott (Regina)

Provincial Services is responsible for providing a broad range of administrative, educational and other support services to individuals, agencies and communities on a province-wide basis. It is organized into four main components: Administration; Evaluation and Research; Prevention and Training and Community Program Liaison. In addition to co-ordinating the activities of the four main components, the Associate Executive Director, Provincial Services, is also responsible for co-ordination of the Impaired Driver Treatment Program.

Administration

Director - Gordon G. Leach

The major functions of the Administration Division are the provision of accounting, administration and personnel services for the Saskatchewan Alcoholism Commission and resource allocation for the Commission and its funded agencies.

Evaluation and Research

Director - Robert Markosky

The Evaluation and Research Division is responsible for promoting, initiating and conducting research on alcohol and other drug disabilities with an aim toward evaluating and improving service delivery by the Saskatchewan Alcoholism Commission. The unit also conducts baseline and other studies in the area of alcohol and other drugs to assist in program development and to enhance the general knowledge of these problems throughout the province.

Prevention and Training

Director - Vacant

The Prevention and Training Division is responsible for the province-wide delivery of alcohol and other drug abuse prevention programs in addition to providing various staff training and extension services.

Employee Assistance Program - the Saskatchewan Alcoholism Commission has developed an Employee Assistance Program to assist employers and employees in dealing with alcohol and related problems in the workplace. The program provides: consultation in developing new and updating existing Employee Assistance Programs; training seminars for supervisors and union shop stewards; training and consultation for those chosen to co-ordinate the company's program; and professional assessment, referral, rehabilitation and follow-up services.

Youth Programs - Resources for Youth/Drug Education are available free of charge for display in Saskatchewan communities. For one-day displays, contact the Saskatchewan Alcoholism Commission's Regional Co-ordinator in your area. Three-day or longer displays, which include posters, pamphlets and films, are also available for loan.

Information Services - The Saskatchewan Alcoholism Commission has available for free distribution a number of pamphlets, brochures, posters and other publications on alcoholism and other drug problems. A list of currently available publications is available upon request.

Resource Library - The Saskatchewan Alcoholism Commission operates a resource library which is open to the public from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. The collection currently includes 1,200 volumes, 60 journal subscriptions and 1,100 reports, pamphlets, government documents and newspaper clippings on alcoholism and other drug-related topics. Interlibrary loans and computer search services are available if required and a bi-monthly acquisitions list is available on request.

Audio-Visual Services - The Saskatchewan Alcoholism Commission operates a free film lending service for individuals and groups involved in developing or operating alcohol and other drug abuse prevention programs.

Training Programs - Seminars and workshops are conducted throughout the year for Commission staff, allied agency personnel and interested persons from the community. Training sessions include:

Introductory Courses involve an orientation seminar, a library workshop and the Mini-Course.

The Orientation Seminar and Library Workshop are inservice sessions and for new staff of the Commission only.

Mini-Course - The Mini-Course provides basic facts about alcohol, alcoholism and drug-related problems for persons interested in learning about chemical dependencies. This 4½ day course is held in conference facilities at the Commission offices in Saskatoon on an on-going basis and is open to all staff of the Commission and allied agencies as well as the general public and interested professionals.

Basic Knowledge Courses involve seminars in addictions, basic medical knowledge, pharmacology, prevention, and treatment modalities. These sessions are open to staff of the Commission and allied agencies and interested others.

Addiction Counsellor Training to provide a practical foundation of knowledge, skills and attitudes for counsellors in the addictions field. These sessions are open to staff of the Commission and allied agencies who have completed the Basic Knowledge Courses and who have a position for which the training would be relevant.

Practicums - a practicum is provided through the Calder Centre, Saskatoon and Regina Rehabilitation Centre for students and helping professionals interested in the problems of chemical dependencies. Some of the participants include students from nursing (Degree and Diploma programs), psychiatric nursing, medicine and social work faculties. The practicum ranges in length from two weeks to three months.

Community Program Consultant - Ray Burke

The major activities undertaken by the Community Program Consultant are to provide consultative services to the Commission's funded and allied agencies as well as work towards the development of a province-wide follow-up network utilizing the Commission's staff, funded agencies, allied agencies, community and volunteer organizations. The Community Program Consultant reports directly to the Associate Executive Director.

REGIONAL SERVICES

Regional Services provides a broad range of treatment and follow-up services to chemically-dependent persons and their families in addition to promoting an increased awareness within the community of the dimensions of the problem of alcohol and other drug abuse.

Regional Services is organized into three divisions, Northern, Central and Southern. The major rehabilitation centres of Calder (Saskatoon) and Regina Rehabilitation Centre are located as regional treatment institutions in the Central and Southern divisions.

Fifteen Regional Co-ordinators, working within Regional Services, are charged with the responsibility of supporting and assisting in the development of community programs and services by community people. Regional Co-ordinators' offices are located at La Ronge, La Loche, Green Lake, Creighton and Buffalo Narrows in the Northern Division; Saskatoon, Rosetown, North Battleford, Prince Albert and Melfort in the Central Division and at Regina, Yorkton, Weyburn, Moose Jaw and Swift Current in the Southern Division. Regional Directors report directly to the Executive Director and participate in the senior management of the Commission.

Regina Rehabilitation Centre
2140 Hamilton Street
Regina, Sask. S4P 3V7

Supervisor - Tom E. Dolan

Regina Rehabilitation Centre is a day-patient treatment facility for alcoholics and other chemically-dependent persons and their families. The treatment program consists of four essential components: education (lectures, films and group discussions); one-to-one counselling; group therapy; and an introduction to Alcoholics Anonymous/Al-Anon/Alateen through attendance at assigned meetings. Since a major feature of the program is the involvement of family members, spouses are encouraged to participate in the program. Admission to the program is voluntary. In most cases, individuals are referred to the program by a community source such as a social worker or their family physician. Residential support is available through Myers House.

Regina Out-Patient Clinic
2140 Hamilton Street
Regina, Sask. S4P 3V7

The Regina Out-Patient Clinic provides follow-up services in the form of individual, family or group counselling for those persons who have completed the rehabilitation program. The same service is also offered to those persons who have repeated problems maintaining sobriety and to that person's family group. Other services provided by Regina Out-Patient Clinic include the dispensing of Antabuse, where appropriate, and the operation of the Methadone Program, a withdrawal or maintenance program for those persons with a proven, firmly established addiction to opiate narcotics. As part of the Methadone Program, which is administered under the protocol approved by federal legislation, the drug methadone is dispensed at a local Regina hospital. Admission to the various out-patient programs at Regina Out-Patient Clinic is voluntary. Where appropriate, referrals may be made to other treatment agencies and/or community resources such as in/day patient programs, Alcoholics Anonymous, Legal Aid and Social Services.

Saskatoon, Sask. S7M 2Z1

Supervisor - vacant

Calder Rehabilitation Centre is an in-patient and day-patient treatment facility for alcoholics and other chemically-dependent persons and their families. The in-patient program is three to four weeks in duration. It includes lectures, therapy groups, individual counselling, recreational therapy and discussions with an over-all emphasis being placed upon the chemically-dependent person's learning to communicate with others and live comfortably in the community without the use of chemicals. Evening and weekend programming include attendance at A.A. meetings, recreational activities and films. Referrals to the program are accepted from any source in the community. All admissions to the chemical dependency program are assigned to a counsellor by the admissions co-ordinator. Chemically addicted persons, their spouses and children are encouraged to come together whenever possible. Spouses and family members are admitted by the co-ordinator of the Spouse and Family Program. The centre also provides a Youth Program on a live-in and out-patient basis.

Calder Out-Patient Clinic
320 Fifth Avenue North
Saskatoon, Sask. S7K 2P5

Calder Out-Patient Clinic provides treatment, follow-up and support services to alcohol and other drug dependent persons, their spouses and other family members with a view toward recovery and an improved quality of life. Out-patient counselling services provided by the clinic may include individual or group counselling, couple counselling and/or the voluntary use of Antabuse to help support the individual toward an independent, responsible lifestyle within the community. Help in planning and assessment of learning potential and motivation to improve marketable and life skills are also provided at the clinic. Application to the V.R.D.P. (Vocational Rehabilitation of Disabled Persons) Program is also made if appropriate. Referrals for these services may be made by any individual or agency by contacting the Calder Out-Patient Clinic.

Non-Residential

a) Community Support Programs

Alcoholics Anonymous (A.A.)

Alcoholics Anonymous is a fellowship of men and women who share their experience with one another in order that they may solve their common problem with alcohol and help others to recover from alcoholism. A.A. is not allied with any sect, denomination, organization or political party. A.A. groups are located in most communities; there are no dues or fees for A.A. membership.

Al-Anon

Al-Anon is a self-help support group of wives, husbands, relatives and friends of alcoholics who join together to try to solve the common problems and develop an understanding of the alcoholic. Although Al-Anon is not a part of Alcoholics Anonymous, the two organizations are closely allied. Al-Anon family groups are located in most communities.

Alateen

Alateen is a self-help support group for teenage children, relatives and friends of alcoholics who join together to try to solve their common problems and develop an understanding of their alcoholic parents, relative or friend. Although Alateen is a separate fellowship, it is closely allied with both A.A. and Al-Anon. Alateen groups are located in most communities.
